

Application Form for New Directors

DATE: _____

The Cascade Lower Canyon Community Forest includes about 26,000 hectares of forest land largely in the vicinity of Hope. The CLCCF is a 3-way community forest partnership of the District of Hope, the Yale First Nation and the Fraser Valley Regional District. The CLCCF wishes to have some new volunteer (unpaid) Directors, each representing one of the shareholders, working with the General Manager toward the best interests of the community forest.

Interested applicants are to:

1. Refer to the CLCCF website at www.clccf.ca for general information on the community forest.
2. From the website at www.clccf.ca, under the menu tab "Policies & Plans", get a copy of the "Corporate Governance Policy". Then read the policy to learn about the corporate, governance and operational structure of the CLCCF as well as about the duties, obligations and expected behaviors of Directors. Applicants must verify that they have read the policy.
3. Interested persons are to submit their completed applications either to mwealick@clccf.ca or by mail to CLCCF, PO Box 377, Hope, BC V0X 1L0.
